

Security

Monitor entrances of event locations requiring credentialed access. Assist with control of ceremonies and street functions. May be asked to do limited back pack and bag checks of guests after having received training. Must be honest, professional and courteous.

Diplomacy and firmness are a must to deal with individuals attempting to enter areas without proper credentials. Knowledge of the event necessary. Must be prepared to work in all weather conditions and some remote locations.